Geological Department. The course of training will be for a period of about six months and not more than four will be selected for training. The selected candidates will be given opportunities to work under the officers of this Department engaged in geological survey, mineral survey and prospecting, mining, and analysis of ores and minerals.

CONDITIONS.

1 No fees will be levied for this training in the case of Mysoreans by birth or domicile; but in the case of non-Mysoreans a lumpsum fee of Rs. 100 will be charged for the entire period of training of about six months. The fee is payable in advance before the candidates join the Department for training.

2 Two students of the Sri Jayachamarajendra Occupational Institute, who have passed the Diploma Examination in Mining may also be admitted in addition, to undergo a course of training in both open quarrying and underground mining at the Bellara Gold Mines and other places for a period of six months.

3 This practical training will not by itself give the students any claim whatsoever—express or implied—for any of the appointments in the Department either in the permanent or temporary establishments.

4 The students selected for the training should make their own arrangements for board and lodging.

5 The students selected should be prepared to work in any part of the State where the Director arranges for their training and they should strictly carryout the instructions given to them by the officers under whom they may be posted for training. Such of those who fail to comply with the rules, work diligently and make satisfactory progress during the period of training, are liable to be sent away even in the middle of their training period without refunding any portion of the fee which might have been paid by them.

6 The applicants should submit their applications, together with copies of testimonials, if any, with full details regarding their educational qualifications, so as to reach this office on or before 30th July 1949.

Late applications will not be considered.

Intimation will be sent to the candidates who are selected for training by about the 5th August 1949 and the selected candidates should report themselves for training immediately thereafter.

For further details, the applicants may either call in person during the working hours of the office of the undersigned or write for necessary information required.
